Using the Academic Calendar

The online version of this Calendar and its supplement(s) may be found on the College's website at nmtcteshie.edu.gh/calendar and is the College's official version. In the case of a discrepancy between a printed version and the online version, the online Calendar will be considered accurate.

The College reserves the right to make changes after the publication of this Calendar. Any updates applicable to the current academic year will be posted online in a supplement. Previous versions of the Academic Calendar and accompanying supplements are available online and in the Office of the Registrar.

It is the responsibility of all students to familiarize themselves with the specific requirements for the programs that they seek. While advice and counselling are readily available, it is the student's responsibility to ensure that the courses in which they register fulfill their degree and program requirements.

Rights & Responsibilities

- The College recognizes its responsibility to provide students with proper information. This Calendar, including all Calendar supplements, and course syllabuses constitute the only contracts between students and the College. It is incumbent upon the student to be aware of and adhere to program regulations, requirements, and published deadlines.

The College used best efforts, insofar as reasonably possible, to confirm the accuracy of this Calendar at the time it was published; however, the College retains the right, at its sole discretion and without notice, to revise its Calendar, in which case this Calendar may no longer be accurate. It is understood and agreed that the College will not be in any way liable or legally responsible for such inaccuracies.

- Nursing and Midwifery Training College - Teshie recognizes its responsibility to those of its students, faculty, and staff with disabilities.

The College undertakes to make reasonable accommodations to ensure access to its academic programs and physical facilities, short of undue hardship, while protecting the academic integrity of the College.

- NMTC TESHIE manages personal information of individuals in accordance with applicable legislation and College policies on the protection of personal privacy.

Important Dates

Students are responsible for being familiar with and adhering to published dates and deadlines, especially in relation to course registration and examination schedules.
